

CATALOG

View email in your browser

Share this email with a friend

Celebrating African American History Month

Join us in a celebration of African American History Month! The National Archives holds a wealth of materials documenting the African American experience. We invite you to learn more about the extraordinary contributions of African Americans to United States history and culture through online resources, research guides, and upcoming events and programs.

L: Dr. Roscoe C. Brown, Jr., member Tuskegee Airmen, signs a canopy modeled after his P51 D Mustang during a reception following unveiling ceremonies, 5/18/1996. National Archives Identifier 6497047

R: Photograph of the 6888th Central Postal Directory Battalion in France, 5/27/1945. National Archives Identifier 175539237

Guide to Black History

In 1984, to support the growing demand for knowledge of African American history, Dr.

Debra Newman Ham, with the help of several other colleagues, took on the responsibility of compiling a guide to Black history records at the National Archives. With the publication of Black History: A Guide to Civilian Records in the National Archives, NARA became recognized as one of the primary sources for African American historical documents. Here you will find records, information, research tools and resources on topics such as Civil Rights, Education, Diaspora, Women, and more.

L: Vote Registration Drive National Archives Identifier 556258

R: Ike Sims of Atlanta, Georgia, 87 years old, has eleven sons in the service. National Archives Identifier 533583

In addition, the African American History research page provides archives resources, blog posts and articles, featured records, public programs, subject portals, and more. Subject portals on topics such as Black Power, Voting Rights, and World War I highlight selected records, guidance for researchers, and additional resources for further study.

Subject Portals

Black Power

Voting Rights

World War I

For the latest updates, subscribe to the Rediscovering Black History blog! Learn more about the vast amount of records at the National Archives and Presidential Libraries related to the African American experience.

The National Archives will present more African American History Month programs throughout the month of February. All programs are free and open to the public and available for viewing on the National Archives YouTube channel.

Start your research on History Hub

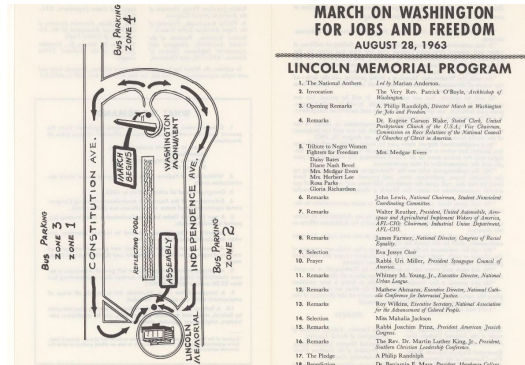

For those looking to conduct research on African American History, we encourage you to browse recent posts and questions in History Hub's African American Records Community:

- Seeking information about the Tuskegee Airmen
- I'm looking for a way to view the 1982 documentary film about James Baldwin
- I am searching for authentic pictures of the Buffalo Soldiers
- I'm trying to find images of African American theatre designer Perry Watkins
- Where can I find records of slave purchases in Georgia?
- Seeking records of the Civil Rights Movement in St. Petersburg, Florida
- How can I track African American Family Names
- Seeking records for Freedman's Hospital
- Seeking records of Battery C, 76th Coastal Artillery Corps \(AA\) \(colored\)
- Seeking US Colored Troops 33rd Regiment Day Books

The screenshot shows the 'African American Records' community page. At the top, there's a header with a profile picture of a man and the title 'African American Records'. Below the header is a navigation bar with tabs: 'Overview', 'Content', 'People', 'Subspaces and Projects', 'Actions', 'About', and 'Share'. A sign-in prompt says 'Sign in to follow, share, and participate in this community. Not a member? Join Now!'. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column, titled 'RECENT CONTENT', lists several posts with titles like 'Seeking photos of Perry Watkins', 'Seeking Government Inspection Records for sawmill', 'Seeking records of 76th Coastal Artillery Corps (AA) (colored)', 'Seeking records of Amelia Gibson', 'Featured Content in African American Records', 'Seeking records of Civil Rights Movement in St. Petersburg, Florida', 'Seeking interview of William Branch by WPA', and 'how can I find out if my grandfather was at tuskegee'. The right column, titled 'ASK ABOUT AFRICAN AMERICAN RECORDS', has a search bar 'What is your question about?' and an 'Ask' button. Below this is a 'FEATURED CONTENT' section with links to 'African American Research Portal', 'Harriet Tubman: A Woman of Courage and Vision', 'America's Olympian: Jesse Owens', 'African American Records - Digitization Projects Supported by the NHPRC', and 'How do I search for my family's history?'. The page is designed with a dark header and a light main content area, using blue and gold accents.

History Hub is our support community for researchers, genealogists, history enthusiasts, and citizen archivists. Ask questions, share information, work together, and find help based on experience and interests. Researchers can ask—or answer—questions on History Hub, or search to see if a question has been asked before.

L: At the George Westinghouse High School. National Archives Identifier 553804

R: March on Washington For Jobs and Freedom. National Archives Identifier 26080947

Citizen Archivist Transcription Mission: African American History

Join us as a Citizen Archivist and help make records more searchable and findable in the Catalog! For this Citizen Archivist mission, explore and help transcribe records in the Catalog documenting African American History. Every word you transcribe helps unlock history.

The famous 369th arrive in New York City. Members of the 369th colored infantry, formerly 15th New York regulars. "Back to little old New York." National Archives Identifier 26431290

How many records can you transcribe? Get started transcribing now.

New to the Citizen Archivist program? Learn how to register and get started.

COVID-19 Update

The National Archives is committed to the health and safety of our visitors and staff. We are closely monitoring the situation regarding COVID-19, and we are working with public health officials and our counterpart agencies to monitor and respond to the evolving conditions and following CDC guidelines.

For more information, visit <https://www.archives.gov/coronavirus>

Questions or comments? Email us at catalog@nara.gov.

Privacy_policy.

Subscribe or Unsubscribe

Powered by Mailchimp